

Kids apart from a parent & a part of our community
A program for children of parents in prison & their families

Vermont
Children's Aid Society

Maintaining safe, healthy, meaningful contact between children and their incarcerated parents:

- Improves a child's response to the incarceration
- Reduces a child's anxiety and fear, &
- Improves long-term outcomes for children

The Kids-A-Part (KAP) Program of Vermont Children's Aid Society is looking for volunteers to meet the needs of incarcerated mothers at North West State Correctional Facility in Swanton.

If you have some free time, even as little as an hour or two a week & are interested in any of the following:

- Assisting with transportation of children to parent: child visits
- Assisting with supervising and coordinating the activities for parent: child visits
- Assisting with evening phone calls between mothers and their children
- Offering consistent group opportunities to women, such as: letter writing or reading books on tapes to their children

Please contact Tara Graham, Kids-A-Part Program Director @ (802) 655 - 0006 x 107 or email: tgraham@vtcas.org

* If volunteering in the facility, you must be willing to attend a Kids-A-Part training as well as the NWSCF security training; which includes a criminal record check.
